Absenteeism is costly!

Introducing a forum which could enhance your existing human resource skills and improve employee attendance.

One of the biggest challenges organisations face is employees being absent from work.

The Confederation of British Industry believes high absenteeism is the main reason why UK productivity lags behind the US and some parts of Europe.

Low levels of productivity have a direct impact upon the profitability and competitiveness of your organisation, but, more importantly, are likely to place you in stressful and difficult situations.

This forum will be exploring both practical and informative solutions to common absence issues. The main focus will be on providing an environment where people in similar positions with the same problems can share information, knowledge and experiences as well an opportunity to network with your colleagues.

This forum meeting will be held on Friday 16th March, 2007 from 9:30am until 1:30pm at The Groves, 8 St. Peter's Grove, York.

The fee is £75 and will include lunch.

If you are interested please complete the slip below and return it to the address given or contact us via email or telephone.
